

“MAKE MY LIFE A MONUMENT”

- A life that really counts
 - A life that goes beyond me
 - A life of influence

JOSHUA 4:1-3,10-11,13-14,18,21-24

- Joshua's respect came from his complete obedience to the Lord.
- The Lord demonstrated His power and love.
- As a result so many lives were positively impacted.
- The Lord wanted a monument of stones to represent all of the people and as a reminder forever for everyone.

HOW DO WE GET THERE?

- 3 Keys
 - Perspective
 - Positive Change
 - Passion

1. PERSPECTIVE: A GROUNDED RELATIONSHIP WITH GOD IS EVERYTHING

1 COR 6:19-20

- Be determined to keep focus
- Prevenient Grace
- Open your eyes to see God at work
- Believe in the person God made you
- Some victories are hard-won
- Some victories are won by walking the harder path

2. POSITIVE CHANGE: WE ARE OUR BIGGEST PROBLEM PHIL 1:6

- God does want ability; he wants availability
- To be an agent of positive change, we need rock-solid principles and values.
- Timing; the right season

3. PASSION: “WERE OUR HEARTS NOT BURNING?” LUKE 24:32

- Dare
- Individuality + independence vs relational + dependent
- Wholeheartedness and passion
- Passion and Purpose

TO RE-CAP

- Energize others
- Let their potential blossom
- Confident to live a challenging life
- Become a monument that testifies to the Lord
- Requirements: Perspective, Positive Change and Passion
